Good rice is closer than you think.

RiceMaps now covers all 50 states plus Puerto Rico, with smarter ways to find, filter and share exactly the rice you're craving.

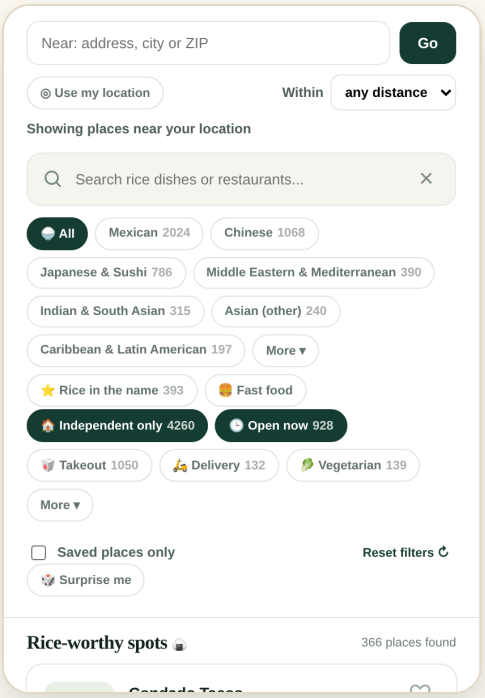

🍚 236,000+ places | 🗺️ Coast to coast | 📄 6,700+ city & cuisine pages

1 Find exactly what you're craving

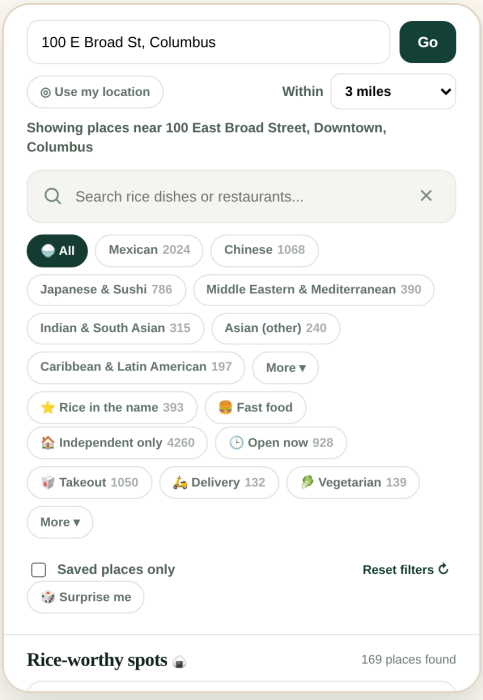

Narrow thousands of places down to the one you want in a tap. Everything stacks, so combine as many as you like.

- Cuisine groups like Mexican, Japanese & Sushi, Indian & South Asian and more
- ⭐ Rice in the name for places built around a rice dish
- 🏠 Independent only to skip the big chains
- 🕒 Open now, Takeout, Delivery, Vegetarian, Vegan, Outdoor seating, Accessible and Drive-through

How to use it: open the map, tap any chip under the search box. Counts show how many places match. Tap Reset filters to start over.

Places within 3 miles of a typed address

2 Near me, anywhere

Type any address, city or ZIP, or tap Use my location. RiceMaps drops a blue dot on your spot and lists the closest places first, with distances.

- Choose Within 1, 3, 5, 10 or 25 miles
- Works with every filter above
- Planning a trip? Search a city you're visiting

How to use it: type an address at the top of the left panel and press Go, or tap ◎ Near me on the map. Your location is only used in your browser.

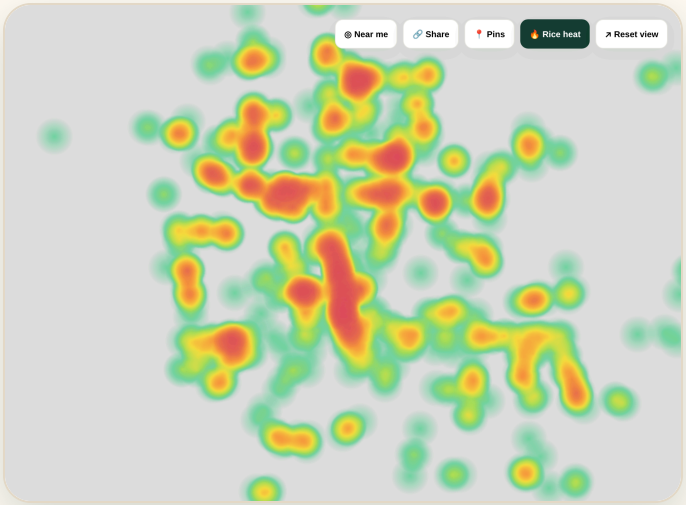

3 See where the rice is

Turn on the 🔥 Rice heat map for a weather-radar view of rice density. Green is a few places, red is a rice hotspot. It updates as you pan and zoom.

How to use it: tap Rice heat on the map. Want only the colors? Tap 📍 Pins to hide the markers. Your results list on the left stays put.

Take it with you

Tap 🔗 Share to copy a link to exactly what you're looking at: location, filters, heat map and all.
